COURT AUTHORIZED NOTICE OF LAWSUIT

If you worked for Great Kitchen Support Corp. (“Defendant”), at any time between September 6, 2021, and the present, please read this Notice.

*Important: You are NOT being sued. This Notice is NOT a solicitation from a lawyer.
The Court authorized this Notice.*

- Plaintiffs Pedro Cruz-Pena, Danelba Suriel, and Amalia Godinez are former employees of Defendant, who worked for Defendant as Kitchen Assistants and/or Cooks.
- Plaintiffs are pursuing this lawsuit against Defendant on behalf of themselves and all other current and former employees who worked for Defendant as an Area Manager or Territory Manager at any time between September 6, 2021, and the present. Plaintiffs allege that Defendant misclassified them as exempt from overtime and failed to pay them the minimum wage. Plaintiffs further claim that they worked over forty hours per week and that Defendant paid them an arbitrary weekly salary, and did not pay them overtime pay for the hours that they worked over forty each week, in violation of the Fair Labor Standards Act. Defendant denies any wrongdoing and maintains that it properly paid all of its employees in accordance with the law.
- The Court has authorized Plaintiffs to send out this Notice. The Court has not yet decided who is right or who is wrong. However, your legal rights may be affected, and you have a choice to make now.

YOUR LEGAL RIGHTS AND OPTIONS IN THIS LAWSUIT
ASK TO BE INCLUDED	If you choose to be included in this collective action, you must complete the “Consent to Join Lawsuit” form at the end of this Notice. You may then share in any proceeds from a settlement or judgment if those bringing the claims are successful and you qualify under the law, but you give up any rights to separately sue the Defendant for the same legal claims in this lawsuit.
DO NOTHING	By doing nothing, you will not be included in this lawsuit, and the statute of limitations on your federal claims continues to run.

1. Why did I get this notice?

You are getting this notice because Defendant’s records show that you may have worked for Defendant at some point between September 6, 2021, through the present, as Kitchen Assistant and/or a Cook.

2. What is a collective action and who is involved?

In a collective action lawsuit, one or more persons can bring a lawsuit on behalf of others who have similar claims. The individuals who brought and joined this lawsuit are called the Plaintiffs. The corporate entity that is being sued is called the Defendant. One court resolves the issues for everyone who decides to join the case.

3. What is this collective action lawsuit about?

Plaintiffs allege that Defendant’s compensation practices violated federal law. Plaintiffs claim that they and those similarly-situated who worked for Defendant are entitled to unpaid overtime wages, liquidated damages, attorneys’ fees, and costs.

Defendant denies any wrongdoing and/or liability and maintains that it paid all of its employees in accordance with the law.

4. What is the purpose and effect of this notice?

This notice is for the sole purpose of determining those persons who wish to be involved in this case.

If you elect to join this proceeding, and Plaintiffs successfully obtain a settlement or a judgment, you may be entitled to some portion of the recovery. There are no assurances that any recovery will be awarded.

You should be aware that a claim under the Fair Labor Standards Act must be brought within two years of the date that the claim accrues, unless you can prove that your employer’s violation was “willful,” in which case the claim must be brought within three years.

5. How do I join this collective action lawsuit?

To participate in this lawsuit, you need to fill out the enclosed form titled “Consent to Join Lawsuit” and mail it in the enclosed, postage-paid envelope, to Plaintiffs’ Counsel, Borrelli & Associates, P.L.L.C. Should the enclosed envelope be lost or misplaced, the Consent to Join Lawsuit form must be sent to:

Borrelli & Associates, P.L.L.C.
910 Franklin Avenue, Suite 205
Garden City, New York 11530
Tel: (516) 248-5550

You can also: fax the Consent to Join Lawsuit form to (516) 248-6027; or scan and email it to apc@employmentlawyernewyork.com

The signed Consent to Join Lawsuit form must be filed with the Court by [60 days from mailing of notice]. If your signed Consent to Join Lawsuit form is not filed with the Court by [60 days from mailing of notice], you may not be allowed to participate in this lawsuit.

6. If I choose to join this lawsuit, will I have to participate in any legal proceeding?

Most likely, if you choose to join this lawsuit, you will be required to provide information and answer questions relating to your employment with Defendant. You may be required to testify at a deposition or at a trial, respond to written questions, and/or produce documents relevant to the case. For this reason, if you join the lawsuit, you should preserve all documents relating to your employment with the Defendant that are currently in your possession. Plaintiffs’ attorneys will assist you with these requirements if you elect for them to represent you, as explained below in section 10 below.

Additionally, you will be bound by any ruling, settlement, or judgment, whether favorable or unfavorable. If there is a favorable resolution, either by settlement or judgment, and you qualify under the law, you may be entitled to some portion of the recovery. By joining this lawsuit, you designate Plaintiffs, or their counsel, to the fullest extent possible, to make decisions on your behalf concerning the case, the method and manner of conducting the case, and all other matters pertaining to this lawsuit. Decisions made and agreements entered into by Plaintiffs or their counsel relating to the lawsuit will be binding on you if you join the lawsuit.

7. What happens if I do nothing at all?

You will not be included in this lawsuit and you will not be affected by any settlement or judgment rendered in this case, whether favorable or unfavorable. The limitations period on your claims will, however, continue to run.

8. Can I participate in this collective action lawsuit regardless of my immigration status?

Yes. You have a right to participate in this lawsuit regardless of your immigration status.

9. If I join, will there be any impact on my employment?

No. Federal law prohibits Defendant from discharging or in any other manner retaliating against you because you joined this case or have in any other way exercised your rights under federal law.

10. Do I have a lawyer in this case?

Plaintiffs are represented by Borrelli & Associates, P.L.L.C. If you choose to join this lawsuit, Borrelli & Associates, P.L.L.C. will represent you on a contingency fee basis, meaning that you will not owe any attorneys' fees unless Plaintiffs are successful and win the case or obtain a settlement, in which case the Court will likely determine the amount of attorneys' fees to be paid from any such settlement or judgment.

You do not have to be represented by Borrelli & Associates, P.L.L.C. and may instead hire another attorney of your choosing, or represent yourself pro se without the assistance of a lawyer. If you intend to retain your own lawyer or to represent yourself, you should indicate this on the "Consent to Join Lawsuit" form. If you send back your form but do not indicate that you intend to retain your own lawyer or to represent yourself, the Court will assume that you want Borrelli & Associates, P.L.L.C. to represent you.

11. This Notice has been authorized by the Court

This notice and its contents have been authorized by Magistrate Judge Robert M. Levy of the United States District Court for the Eastern District of New York, located in Brooklyn, New York. The Court has not yet ruled on whether Plaintiffs' claims or Defendant's defenses have any merit.

PLEASE DO NOT WRITE OR CALL THE COURT OR THE CLERK OF THE COURT ABOUT THIS NOTICE.
